PRESENTATIONS

a.) FY 2026 Budget Presentation, Stephanie Cecco, Borough Manager

Stephanie Cecco, Borough Manager, outlined the budget process and timeline, including capital and operational requests, formal presentation, public review, and adoption. She noted that FY2025 revenues exceeded expenditures by an average of $4 million, supporting capital projects, reserve growth, and expanded services while maintaining low taxes. She also highlighted 2025 accomplishments for each department. For the proposed 2026 budget, Ms. Cecco stated that total revenues are projected at $20.26 million. She reviewed the various revenue sources, noting that 13.2% comes from residents’ real estate taxes, with the majority generated from businesses, commerce, and grants. She explained how real estate taxes are utilized. Ms. Cecco shared that the budget is balanced with no tax increase and an overall growth of 4.55% is due primarily to personnel, pensions, and healthcare costs. She explained that the budget is designed to support ongoing growth while maintaining appropriate service levels. She also reviewed the allocation of tax dollars across operating funds, departmental goals for 2026, and outlined the next steps in the budget process.
